City of Seattle Domestic Violence Task Force Workplan

April 1993

- DV Task Force Preliminary Report and Recommendations
(Summarizes the recommendations reached by the City's Violence Task Force ("Task Force") after its first year of work. The Task Force was formed as a result of the "Seeking Justice" training conducted by the Office for Women's Rights (OWR) in 1992 and the City Council's budget review of domestic violence coordination within City's criminal justice system. The purpose of the Task force is to improve victim safety and to increase successful prosecution of batterers through better coordination of the City's own domestic violence response system)
- Task Force 1994 Work Plan
The Task Force drafted a 1994 work plan and a mission statement that reads: (The Seattle Domestic Violence Task Force is created in order to expand the City's efforts to implement comprehensive policies for intervention in domestic violence)
